WELCOME

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF TERRITORY

All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church exists on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron / Neutral People. We honour the original ancestors of this land and also offer respect and friendship to our Haudenosaunee, Anishinaabe, Mississauga and Métis neighbours. We give thanks for the First Peoples and all who have cared for the land and made it possible for us to dwell and do ministry on this land, and we commit ourselves to walk in right relations with one another.

Today we honour the memory of all missing and murdered Métis, First Nations and Inuit women, girls, and two spirit people including the spirits of the missing or murdered. You were taken, but you are not forgotten; your lives, dreams, hopes and losses are now forever a part of Canada's living history.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray,

Compassionate God, in Jesus we have a shepherd who is always seeking out the least and the lost. In Canada these are Indigenous women, girls and Two Spirit people who have suffered at the hands of those exercising power and dominance. There are so many murdered and missing Indigenous women and girls in our land, we don't even know all their names. With your shepherding love, comfort those living in fear for their lives, and console the loved ones of those who are missing or murdered. Give us the courage and the will to bring an end to cultures of domination and, instead, seek out and care for the most vulnerable among us, that all might live with the dignity and abundance you desire for your children. God, in your mercy, hear our prayer. Amen.

PSALM 22

Way way way way way.	Way way way way way.	Way way way way way.
Gi - chi - ma - ni - doo,	Gi - chi - ma - ni - doo,	Gi - chi - ma - ni - doo.
Lord, have mer - cy.	Lord, have mer - cy.	Lord, have mer - cy.
Al - le - lu - ia,	al - le - lu - ia,	al - le - lu - ia.

Refrain: Way, way, way, way, way

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me and are so far from my cry for help?
O my God, I cry by day and by night but you don't hear me.
I can't sleep, but you are the Holy Creator.

Lord Have Mercy

R: Way Way Way Way Way

Our ancestors put their trust in you;
they trusted and you kept them safe and guided them.
They cried out to you and you helped them;
they had no reason to feel any shame.
But as for me, I am a worm and barely human anymore,
cast aside by the system and despised by society.
Those who see me laugh at me cruelly;
they move to the other side of the street.
Yet you are the one who took me safely from my mother's womb,
and kept me safe at her breast.
My grandparents entrusted me to you when I was born;
you were my Creator even before I was born.
Lord Have Mercy

R: Way Way Way Way Way

Stay close to me: I am in trouble and nobody is here to help me.
Night after night they catcall and catch me,
violate me and hurt me,
threaten me and leave me poured out like water.
Gangs of men close in on me, and abusers circle around me.
They strip me of my clothes.
Lord Have Mercy

R: Way Way Way Way Way

Be not far away, Strong Creator;
you are my strength, hasten to help me.
Save me from the fist, the knife, the gun, the stranglehold;
the spirits of despair and depression that rule our lives.
Save my life, my body and soul, from this power of evil.
I will declare your name to all my relations;
in the midst of the whole community I will praise you.
Praise the Creator, O children from seven generations.
For you, Great Spirit, do not hate or abuse the poor in their poverty;
you don't turn away from them, and when they cry to you, you hear them.
Lord Have Mercy

R: Way Way Way Way Way

The poor shall have a huge feast and be satisfied, and those who seek you shall praise you.
My soul shall live for God,
and my descendants shall be known as the Creator's forever.
They shall tell the story to the next generations of how God has saved us.

Lord Have Mercy

R: Way Way Way Way Way

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (sung twice)

Let your stead-fast love come to us, O Lord.

Let your stead-fast love come to us, O Lord.

Save us as you prom-ised; we will trust your word.

Let your stead-fast love come to us, O Lord.

GOSPEL: Matthew 28:1-10

This is the story of the resurrection. Two important questions could be asked.

First, who will roll away the stone that is blocking the government from taking action? Second, how do we restore the honour to women and how do we promote this honour in all of society? Jesus gave women great honour in this passage. In Indigenous communities women are honoured for being wisdom keepers, carriers of the culture, water carriers, and for being child bearers.

The holy gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. ² And suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³ His appearance was like lightning and his clothing white as snow. ⁴ For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. ⁵ But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. ⁶ He is not here, for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he^[a] lay. ⁷ Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.' This is my message for you." ⁸ So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹ Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers and sisters to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

The gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CHOIR ANTHEM — We Wait for You

LIGHTING OF CANDLES

During the readings, each candle is lit from the Angel Candle.

Candle of Sorrow

In this moment of solemn reflection, we pay tribute to the countless Indigenous women, girls and, two-spirit people who have been taken. We honour their memory with a flickering flame. As we gather today, we offer our prayers for the families and communities that grieve deeply and carry this unbearable burden of loss. We recognize that every tear shed is a testament to love, and we pledge to work towards justice and healing for all.

Candle of Remembrance

Let us take a moment to cherish the lives of those who have left their footprints in the hearts of their communities forever. With a flickering candle we pay tribute to the precious memories of their laughter, kindness, and warmth that will stay with so many. As we remember them, we acknowledge the profound legacy of compassion, courage, and persistence they have left behind. May their spirit and resilience inspire generations to come.

Candle of Peace

As this flame flickers we honour those who have suffered unimaginable loss and pain. In the midst of the ongoing brutalities faced by Indigenous women, girls, and two-spirit people, we light this candle to symbolize the hope for peace. Our hearts ache for those who have been taken, and those who have been left behind to search and to mourn. We pray for comfort and healing for them. May the light of this candle gently illuminate the path towards peace, and may we stand in solidarity with those who mourn.

Candle of Hope

As we light this flame let us ignite hope for the days of recovery and healing ahead. We yearn for comfort in times of hardship. We long for trust, peace, and safety for all. May this candle shine as a beacon of hope for a brighter future for Indigenous communities, and may we play our part in bringing it to pass.

Candle of Love

As we light this candle, we celebrate the power of love to guide us through even the darkest of times. We give thanks for the opportunities to love deeply, and for the precious memories that we carry in our hearts. We pledge to live fully and love fiercely and be a beacon of hope and kindness to our Indigenous siblings. Let us honour their loved ones by sharing our lights and spreading love wherever we go.

The lit candles will move into the congregation. Please hold lit candles upright and only tip unlit candles so no wax is spilled.

LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE

Let us remember those whose lives have been cut short.

We remember before you, O God all the Indigenous women, girls, and two-spirit people who have suffered abuse, rape, and violence. All those who are missing or have been confirmed to be murdered. We remember before you those who have been violated, beaten, and cut down. We remember before you all those who, as mothers of girls and women who have been brutalized, are seared with the burning pain of grief. We ask you to grant eternal rest to these your beloved ones, and all Indigenous women, girls, and two-spirit people who have been murdered and are missing.

May light perpetual shine on them. Give rest to your children where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting. Give comfort to their families and communities, to mothers, fathers, grandparents, aunties, uncles, and children of those missing and murdered.

We pray for their communities and families and all who mourn.

May we turn our hearts, minds, souls, and bodies to care, to advocate, and to seek justice. May we seek ways to support the children and families of these women, with true nurture and care. May their fathers and mothers find healing in memory, and the hope for justice into which we are called into partnership.

We remember before you all the Indigenous women Elders who bring the wisdom of their lives to guide the younger generations.

We give thanks for their strength and courage, for those who have shared their healing journeys.

We pray for continued healing and relief for them for the grief they carry for their grandchildren, Indigenous girls and women missing or murdered, as they near the end of their days.

May we so honour these Elders that their stories of survival and healing from violence may guide us and teach us deeply. May all who inhabit this sacred space today, in body, soul, mind, and heart, be drawn even more deeply through compassion into love for our Indigenous sisters and all their relations; may they be renewed in your hope; and may they be strengthened to serve along the pathways to which they are called.

COMMITMENT

When we break bread together, will you share in prayer for our Indigenous sisters?

I will, with God's help.

Will you resist the powers and structures of evil that create violence and abuse, racism and sexism, and, when you come face to face with your place of privilege, will you turn in repentance and keep the circle strong?

I will, with God's help.

Will you proclaim by word and deed the good news in Christ by seeking out and serving Christ in all persons, loving your neighbour as yourself?

I will, with God's help.

The whole creation yearns for us, the children of God, to care for each other and for all of creation. Will you join the struggle against the social, racial, economic, and land injustices that affect the lives of Indigenous peoples and harm the earth?

I will, with God's help.

The candles are extinguished.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Creator God, accept all we offer you this day: our prayers for your vulnerable children; our grief for your beloved Indigenous women, girls, and two spirit people; our hope in your healing and reconciling love. Receive the sacred food we lay before you and, through them, work the healing of our souls for the service of your mission. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

May God be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks to God our Creator.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Eternal God, Source of all being,
we give you thanks and praise for your faithful love.
You call us into friendship with you and one another,
to be your holy people,
a sign of your presence in the world.

When those we trust betray us,
unfailingly you remain with us.
When we injure others,
you confront us in your love,
and call us to the paths of righteousness.
You stand with the weak, and those, broken and alone,
whom you have always welcomed home,
making the first last, and the last first.

Therefore, we raise our voices with angels and archangels, forever praising you and saying:

Holy, holy, holy One, God of mercy and light, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the One who comes in the name of our God.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed are you, O Holy One. When Hagar was driven into the wilderness you followed her and gave her hope. When Joseph was sold into bondage, you turned malice to your people's good. When you called Israel out of slavery, you brought them through the wilderness into the promised land. When your people were taken into exile you wept with them by the river of Babylon and carried them home.

Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

At the right time you sent your Anointed One to stand with the poor, the outcast, and the oppressed. Jesus touched lepers, and the sick, and healed them. He accepted water from a woman of Samaria and offered her the water of new life. Christ knew the desolation of the cross and opened the way for all humanity into the redemption of your reconciling love.

On the night he was betrayed, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, "Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Loving and Holy One, recalling Christ's death and resurrection, we offer you these gifts, longing for the bread of tomorrow and the wine of the age to come. Therefore we proclaim our hope.

Dying you destroyed our death, rising you restored our life.
Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Pour out your Spirit on these gifts, that through them you may sustain us in our hunger for your peace. We hold before you all whose lives are marked by suffering, our sisters and brothers. When we are broken and cast aside, embrace us in your love.

Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, O Source of all life, now and forever. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Eternal Spirit, Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all. Loving God, in whom is heaven. The hallowing of your name echoes through the universe! The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the earth! Your heavenly will be done by all created beings! Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The risen Christ is made known to us in the breaking of the bread.
Come and eat at God's table.
Thanks be to God!

PRAYER

Creator God, Great Spirit, Brother Jesus, community of the Holy Trinity, you are with us in spirit, love, and truth. We thank you for receiving into your heart our prayers, our grief, our confusion, our questions, our anger, our pain, and our hope for the healing of all who suffer abuse and grief. May this day humble us to the needs of the world, especially to the suffering of vulnerable Indigenous women, girls, and two-spirit people.

We ask you to grant eternal rest to these your beloved ones.

Strengthen us as we seek to serve your mission of healing your beloved creation. As you cradle the world and all its creatures in your love, help us to trust in the firm and gentle hold of that embrace, that we might commit ourselves with steadfast faith and persistent hard work to pursue justice, to speak truth in the light where violence hides in the dark.

Sustain and guide us as we seek to heal the festering conditions that breed violence and hatred. Be our teacher in the ways of compassionate care. This we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Why a Red Dress?

The REDress Project was "an aesthetic response to the more than 1000 missing and murdered aboriginal women in Canada." In 2011 Jamie Black, a Métis artist, created an art installation on the campus of the University of Winnipeg. The empty red dresses were meant to signify the losses of Indigenous women, girls, and two spirit people to colonial violence.

Black has since encouraged similar public installations of hanging red dresses in different environments as a way to draw attention to the issue of missing and murdered Indigenous women, girls and two spirited people (MMIWG2S) across Canada (and North America). Hundreds of red dresses from across Canada were donated to the original project. The dresses are empty, so that they evoke the missing women who should be wearing them. Black has said: "People notice there is a presence in the absence".

After consultation with an indigenous friend, Black chose the colour red because red is the only colour that spirits can see. This gives the spirits an opportunity to be among us and for us to be the voices that speak to their lives and loss. Black has also suggested red "relates to our lifeblood and that connection between all of us", and that it symbolizes both vitality and violence.

Since 2011, red dresses have been hung in many rural and urban settings, Buffy Ste. Marie now hangs a red dress on the stage at every concert, and the REDress Project is on permanent display at the Canadian Museum for Human Rights, as just a few examples of the impact this project has had. Many public and private spaces will commemorate this day with the display of red dresses on May 5, the day of National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls and Two Spirit People.

The 2015 Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's Calls to Action report identified 94 steps to address the legacy of residential schools in Canada. Call to Action #41 states: We call upon the federal government, in consultation with Aboriginal organizations, to appoint a public inquiry into the causes of, and remedies for, the disproportionate victimization of Aboriginal women and girls. The inquiry's mandate would include:

- 1) Investigation into missing and murdered Aboriginal women and girls
- 2) Links to the intergenerational legacy of residential schools.

The red dress has become a visual symbol of the bitter truth that violence against marginalized members of our communities is often disproportionately felt by Indigenous and Métis women, girls and two spirit people. Another theme in the Calls to Action is about education. The Red Dress can serve as a starting point for concerned conversations that can open us to new truths and compassion, and perhaps eventually to action.

The flowers today were given in memory of all who were taken but not forgotten, and the families who loved them.
