Deacon - Rev. Christine Clatworthy

Please be aware that our Sunday service is video streamed to our YouTube channel for public viewing. If you feel sensitive to this thought and wish to remain out of the occasional line of view, consider sitting in the back left two rows of pews. Thank you.

Please remember to wear your nametag.

With God's grace, the faith community of All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church in Guelph Ontario welcomes you.

We endeavour to be in right relationship with our Indigenous neighbours.

We strive for racial equity.

We welcome people of any age, gender identity and expression, race, colour and sexual orientation.

We welcome people facing physical or mental challenges, those suffering under addictions, single people and those in any relationship.

Our doors are open to people of uncertain faith or deep faith, from any or no religious tradition.

All are truly welcome.

ReconcilingWorks
LUTHERANS FOR FULL INCLUSION

Dear Little Saints-Welcome from all the Big Saints

Before the service even starts, you will need to prepare

Upcoming is a longish sit and grownups want you there

*Instead of wiggling, yawning, sighing
You could be bright new markers trying or putting stickers in your book*

*Or even ..take a little look
Oh joy, cause somebody loves me true
There's juice or sweets or cookies too*

*When you've been good as gold for ever and still the talking lasts forever just dig inside and have a treat
Your Sunday sack is really "sweet"!!!!!!
(and also is a take home treat!)*

We welcome all children to our worship. There is no Sunday Church School at this time. Please ask the ushers for a children's bulletin and/or help them fill a bag with activities and treats from the basket in the narthex.

Communion: All are welcome. Please let an usher know if you need to take Communion in your seat.

Offerings can be left in the trays at the back until the Gathering Song is sung.

Please take this bulletin home for recycling. Thank you

No Scents Makes Good Sense. Members have indicated that they suffer discomfort from perfumes, hair sprays, colognes, and after-shave lotions. Please help us provide a scent-free environment.

Acknowledgment of Territory

All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church exists on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron / Neutral People. We honour the original ancestors of this land and also offer respect and friendship to our Haudenosaunee, Anishinaabe, Mississauga and Métis neighbours.

We give thanks for the First Peoples and all who have cared for the land and made it possible for us to dwell and do ministry on this land, and we commit ourselves to walk in right relations with one another.

Opening Responses

Come, people of God, let us walk in the company of Francis,
For he teaches us to praise Christ in brother sun and sister moon.

Let every creature, winged or wild, sing glory to the Holy One,
And let all the earth bless the God of life.

From rising sun to gentle night, creation whispers the holy name,
We join with rivers and valleys, mountains and forests in praise.

Glory to God in the highest, who is seen in sparrow and star,
Glory to Christ, who greets us in neighbour and stranger.

Glory to the Spirit, breath of life, who makes all things new.
Come, let us worship our God with gladness!

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Prayer of Invocation

Come, Father of the poor
come, Light of our hearts,
come, generous Spirit,
by the glory of your creation around us,
by the comfort of your forgiveness within us,
by the wind of your Spirit
eddy through the years within these walls, renew us, so that we come glad to this celebration.
Amen

God, holy:

God, strong and holy,
God, holy and deathless,
have mercy on us.

Kyrie (Choir)

Blessing of the Animals

People with pets are asked to move with your pet to the closest aisle. Pastor Brian will come to you and move throughout the church with words of blessing.

[name], you were created by God,
and you are loved by God.
May you and your human family experience joy and companionship together and continue to be a blessing to each other.
In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Choir Anthem—Our Trust is in the Lord, C.J. Hoffman

Reading: Galatians 6:14-18

¹⁴ May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me and I to the world. ¹⁵ For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything, but a new creation is everything! ¹⁶ As for those who will follow this rule—peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

¹⁷ From now on, let no one make trouble for me, for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body.

¹⁸ May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

⁷ Therefore they shall now be the first to go into exile, and the revelry of the loungers shall pass away.

God's Word for our journey.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 148:7-14

(sung responsively by whole verse between the Choir and the congregation)

- 7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
you sea monsters and all deeps, 8 fire and hail, snow and frost,
stormy wind fulfilling his command!
9 Mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars!
10 Wild animals and all cattle, creeping things and flying birds! R 11 Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth!
12 Young men and women alike,
old and young together!
13 Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted;
his glory is above earth and heaven.
14 He has raised up a horn for his people,
praise for all his faithful,
for the people of Israel who are close to him.
Praise the LORD! R

Gospel — Matthew 11:25-30

The holy gospel according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Lord.

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; ²⁶ yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. ²⁷ All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

²⁸ "Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰ For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

This is the gospel of Christ.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Affirmation of Faith

We believe in God above us, Maker and sustainer of all life,
of sun and moon, of water and earth,
of male and female.

We believe in God beside us,
Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh, born of a woman's womb, servant of the poor.
He was tortured and nailed to a cross.
A man of sorrows, he died forsaken.
He descended in the earth to the place of death.

On the third day he rose from the tomb.
He ascended into heaven to be everywhere present,
and his kingdom will come on earth.

We believe in God within us,
the Holy Spirit of Pentecostal fire, life-giving breath of the Church,
Spirit of healing and forgiveness,
source of resurrection and of life everlasting.
Amen

Prayers

O Christ, Word made flesh, Light in the darkness, we lift our prayers before you.

Holy One, enfold us in your peace. We pray for the Church throughout the world, that it may be a beacon of hope and a servant of your love. Holy One, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Creator of all life, we give thanks for the beauty and bounty of creation, and ask for wisdom to care for the earth and all its creatures. Holy One, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Sovereign of the nations, guide leaders with justice and compassion, and bring peace to lands torn by conflict, especially Gaza, Ukraine, and Sudan. Holy One, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Source of healing and comfort, be near to all who suffer in mind, body, or spirit — the weary, the sick, the oppressed, and the lonely. We pray especially for those who desire our prayers: Anna-Liisa, Bud, Ruth, Werner and Debbie, John and Julianna, Ross and Karen, Ken and Matzi, Andrew, Joan, Alice, Irene, Karen, Mary, Kathryn, Kelly, John and Laura, Juan and Anita, Bill, Micah, Rosemary, and those we name before you in our hearts. (silence...). Holy One, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Shelter of this congregation of All Saints, be present with us in worship and witness, and strengthen us for loving service in your name. Holy One, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Companion of saints past and present, we give thanks for the life and ministry of St. Francis, and ask that his spirit inspire us to live in your peace and humility. Holy One, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

O Christ, who holds heaven and earth in your wounded hands, receive our prayers and bind them to your own eternal intercession, and teach us to pray together:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen

Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you all!
And also with you.

Offertory— God the Creator # 445 (Blue)

Offertory Prayer

Let us pray:

Blessed are you, O Lord our God and creator.
Through your mercy you have blessed us with these gifts.
With them we offer ourselves to your service and dedicate our lives to the care and redemption of all that you have made, for the sake of the One who gave himself for us, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Celebration of the Eucharist

At the last supper Jesus, sharing bread and wine, invited the disciples to share his journey. Like many grains of wheat becoming one loaf of bread, the disciples were invited to become one body with him.

Here, through bread and wine, we renew our journey with Jesus and his disciples.

Here, through bread and wine, we renew our unity with the earth and our interwovenness with the broken ones of the world.

So come, taste of this bread and wine, gifts of the earth, work of human hands, food both of earth and of heaven.

Among friends, gathered round a table, Jesus took bread, and, having blessed it, he broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying, "This is my body which is given for you."

In the same way he took the wine, and, having given thanks for it, he poured it out and gave the cup to his disciples, saying, "This cup is the new relationship with God, sealed with my blood. Take this and share it. I shall drink wine with you next in the coming Reign of God."

So now, following Jesus' example, we take this bread and wine, the ordinary things of the world through which God blesses us. And, as Jesus offered thanks for the gifts of the earth, let us also celebrate God's goodness.

Lord Jesus Christ present with us now, as we do in this place what you did in an upstairs room long ago, breathe your Spirit upon us and upon this bread and wine, that they may be heaven's food and drink for us, renewing, sustaining and making us whole, and that we may be your body on earth, loving and caring in the world.

The Breaking of the Bread

Many grains were gathered together to make this bread. Many grapes were mixed to make this wine.
So we, who are many, are one in Christ.

Here is bread for the journey and wine for the soul.
All are invited to share in God's abundant gifts.
Thanks be to God!

Post-Communion Prayer

O God, our life, our strength, our food, we give you thanks for sustaining us with the body and blood of your Son. By your Holy Spirit, enliven us to be his body in the world, that more and more we will give you praise and serve your earth and its many peoples, through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord.
Amen.

Announcements

Closing Prayer

O God our Father, who gave to your servant Columba the gifts of courage, faith, and cheerfulness, and sent people forth from the Holy Isle of Iona to carry the word of your Gospel to every creature.

Grant, we pray, a like spirit to your Church, even at this present time.

Further in all things the purpose of this community, that hidden things may be revealed to us, and new ways found to touch the hearts of all.

May we preserve with each other sincere charity and peace, and, if it be your will, grant that this holy place of your abiding may continue still to be a sanctuary and a light; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Benediction

May the love of God fill you with joy and peace.
May the healing power of Christ strengthen and save you.
May the Holy Spirit encourage you.
May a thousand angels guide your steps.
And may a blessing from this holy place protect you all your days.
Amen.

International Lesbian Day, held on October 8, is a day of celebrating lesbians, along with their culture, history, and diversity. This day is celebrated by lesbians and allies with various community events, dances, and conferences and is mostly celebrated in New Zealand and Australia. It is unknown when it was first celebrated: some say New Zealand in 1980, but others say that it started in Australia in 1990. The seven-striped sunset or lesbian flag represents aspects of lesbian identity: dark orange (gender non-conformity), orange (independence), light orange (community), white (unique relationships to womanhood), pink (serenity & peace), dusty pink (love & sex), and dark rose (femininity). This 2018 design by Emily Gwen serves as a widely recognized symbol for the lesbian community, though other flags are also used.

Silvercreek Community Market: Please consider buying the specific items listed below — for October we need peanut butter, soup and cooking oil. Also, we are out of rice and lentils! We do not need any plastic bread tabs or reuseable grocery bags at this time. Thank you.

Our heating and cooling system (HVAC) system is feeling it's age...some 40+ years old. This has affected worship on Sundays, the organ, and others who use our space on a daily basis. In addition, our monthly energy bills have taken an upward climb. Despite multiple attempts by the professionals to adjust and patch the system, the time has come to invest in a new system which would provide for greater efficiencies and longevity.

Church Council has approved the replacement of both the main unit and electronics. The total projected cost of this is upwards of $90,000.00.

HVAC Fundraising Tracker

Despite this projected funding to the HVAC replacement, we are very conscious of the strain on these existing funds in looking to the future. Thus, we are launching a congregational campaign to raise funds for this project. We hope you will join with us in this specific effort.

Donations to this project can be given in two ways:

- cash or cheque in an offering envelope marked HVAC Fund in the Other line.
- email transfer to the church through your bank's website/account. The church email is allsaints@allsaintsguelph.ca. Please write HVAC Fund on the memo line.

If you have further questions or require specific help with this, please contact the church office at 519-821-7710 or email allsaints@allsaintsguelph.ca. Alternatively speak to Brian Janzen. Thank you!

It's Socktober again!

Last year you helped the Guelph Tool Library and the Helper Bees collect five thousand pairs of socks for distribution to those who are unhoused in our city. These socks lasted until April!

So, the goal this year is to collect 7,500 pairs of socks with the hope that this will be enough for a year's supply. Starting in October there will be a bin upstairs (in the narthex) and one downstairs (we are again asking our community partners who meet in the building to contribute to this campaign) to collect your sock donations. Thank you for your support!
