Thanksgiving Sunday

(Please remember to wear your nametag)

PRELUDE

WELCOME

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF TERRITORY

All Saints Lutheran Anglican Church exists on the traditional territory of the Attawandaron / Neutral People. We honour the original ancestors of this land and also offer respect and friendship to our Haudenosaunee, Anishinaabe, Mississauga and Métis neighbours.

We give thanks for the First Peoples and all who have cared for the land and made it possible for us to dwell and do ministry on this land, and we commit ourselves to walk in right relations with one another.

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, the maker of earth and sky, the giver of every good gift, our source of life and joy. Amen.

As we gather in thanksgiving and praise, we remember that by water and the Spirit God has claimed us, renewed us, and called us to live as people of gratitude and grace. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism and for all the gifts of God's creation.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the deep, and by your Word you brought forth a world rich in beauty and bounty. Seasons change, harvests ripen, and all creation sings your praise.

Through the waters of the flood, you brought new life to the earth. Through the sea you led your people from hunger and oppression into freedom. At the river Jesus was baptized by John and anointed with the Spirit to bring good news to the poor and abundance to all who hunger and thirst.

By water and your Word, you claim us as your people, nourishing us in mercy, showering us with grace, and calling us to share your gifts with the world.

We praise you, O God, for water that refreshes, for food that sustains, and for Christ our living bread, who renews our lives with forgiveness and love.

Send your Spirit upon us and upon this creation. Bless the fruits of the earth and the work of human hands, that all people may be fed, all hearts made thankful, and all the world filled with your abundance.

To you be glory and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

GATHERING SONG Come, Ye Thankful People, Come
BLUE 262

GREETING

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

Almighty God,
to you all hearts are opened, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHOIR ANTHEM

FIRST READING: Deuteronomy 26:1-11

The annual harvest festival, called the Feast of Weeks, provides the setting for this reading. This festival celebrates the first fruits of the produce of the land offered back to God in thanks. As they bring their offerings, worshipers remember and proclaim God's gracious acts on behalf of Israel.

<sup>1</sup>"When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess and you possess it and settle in it, <sup>2</sup>you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. <sup>3</sup>You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time and say to him, 'Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us.'

<sup>4</sup>When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God, <sup>5</sup>you shall make this response before the LORD your God:

'A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. <sup>6</sup>When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labour on us, <sup>7</sup> we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. <sup>8</sup> The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; <sup>9</sup> and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup> So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me.'

You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God. <sup>11</sup> Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house."

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 100 (Sung together in unison)

En - ter God's gates with thanks-giv-ing.

- <sup>1</sup> Make a joyful noise to the LORD, | all you lands!
- <sup>2</sup> Serve the LORD with gladness; come into God's presence | with a song.
- <sup>3</sup> Know that the LORD is God, our maker to whom | we belong;
we are God's people and the sheep | of God's pasture. R
- <sup>4</sup> Enter the gates of the LORD with thanksgiving and
the | courts with praise;
give thanks and bless God's | holy name.
- <sup>5</sup> Good indeed is the LORD, whose steadfast love is | everlasting,
whose faithfulness endures from | age to age. R

SECOND READING: Philippians 4:4-9

<sup>4</sup> Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say, Rejoice. <sup>5</sup> Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. <sup>6</sup> Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. <sup>7</sup> And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. <sup>9</sup> As for the things that you have learned and received and heard and noticed in me, do them, and the God of peace will be with you.

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.

GOSPEL: John 6:25-35

The day after he multiplies bread to feed five thousand people, Jesus is pursued by the crowds clamoring for more bread.

The holy gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

<sup>25</sup> When [the Judeans] found [Jesus] on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" <sup>26</sup> Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate your fill of the loaves. <sup>27</sup> Do not work for the food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal."

<sup>28</sup> Then they said to him, "What must we do to perform the works of God?" <sup>29</sup> Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

<sup>30</sup> So they said to him, "What sign are you going to give us, then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? <sup>31</sup> Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.' " <sup>32</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup> For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

The gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HYMN OF THE DAY    Now Thank We All Our God    RED 840

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Let us come before God in prayer, giving thanks for the Bread of Life who sustains the world with mercy and love.

Gracious God, you have called your Church to be one body, nourished by the living bread of Christ. Strengthen all who serve in your name, that your Word may be shared with joy and your love revealed in every act of compassion. Bless our bishops, priests, pastors, deacons, and all who lead your people in worship and service.

God of life, hear our prayer.

Creator of all, we thank you for the bounty of the earth: for fields and forests, rivers and skies, for harvests gathered and food shared. Teach us to care wisely for the land and sea, that future generations may live in the fullness of your abundance.

God of life, hear our prayer.

God of peace, we pray for the nations of the world, and for all who suffer the terror of war and conflict—especially in Ukraine, Gaza, and Sudan. Move the hearts of leaders toward justice and reconciliation, that weapons may be laid down and all your children may live in safety.

God of life, hear our prayer.

Compassionate Christ, bread for the weary and hope for the broken, we remember all who are sick, hungry, or in pain; all who grieve or are lonely, especially: Anna-Liisa, Bud, Ruth, Werner and Debbie, John and Julianna, Ross and Karen, Ken and Matzi, Andrew, Joan, Alice, Irene, Greg and Mary, Kathryn, Kelly, John and Laura, Juan and Anita, Bill, Micah, Rosemary, and those we name before you in our hearts. (silence...). Bring them the comfort of your presence and the healing power of your Spirit.

God of life, hear our prayer.

Loving God, we give thanks for our congregation of All Saints – for friendships that nurture us, ministries that serve our neighbours, and worship that renews our spirits. Unite us in thanksgiving and deepen our trust in you.
God of life, hear our prayer.

Eternal God, we give thanks for the saints who have gone before us and all whose faith continues to shape our own. May their witness strengthen our hope in Christ, who satisfies every hunger and quenches every thirst.
God of life, hear our prayer.

Into your hands, O God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy through Jesus Christ, the Bread of Life.
Amen.

PEACE

May the peace of Christ be with you all!
And also with you.

OFFERTORY     As the Grains of Wheat

all cre - a - tion shares this feast with you.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Let us pray:

Lord of the harvest,
we return to you a portion of what you have given to us.
Turn us to set our hope not on the uncertainty of riches,
but on you, who richly provides for us.
Multiply what we have gathered to bless all who are suffering and in need, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

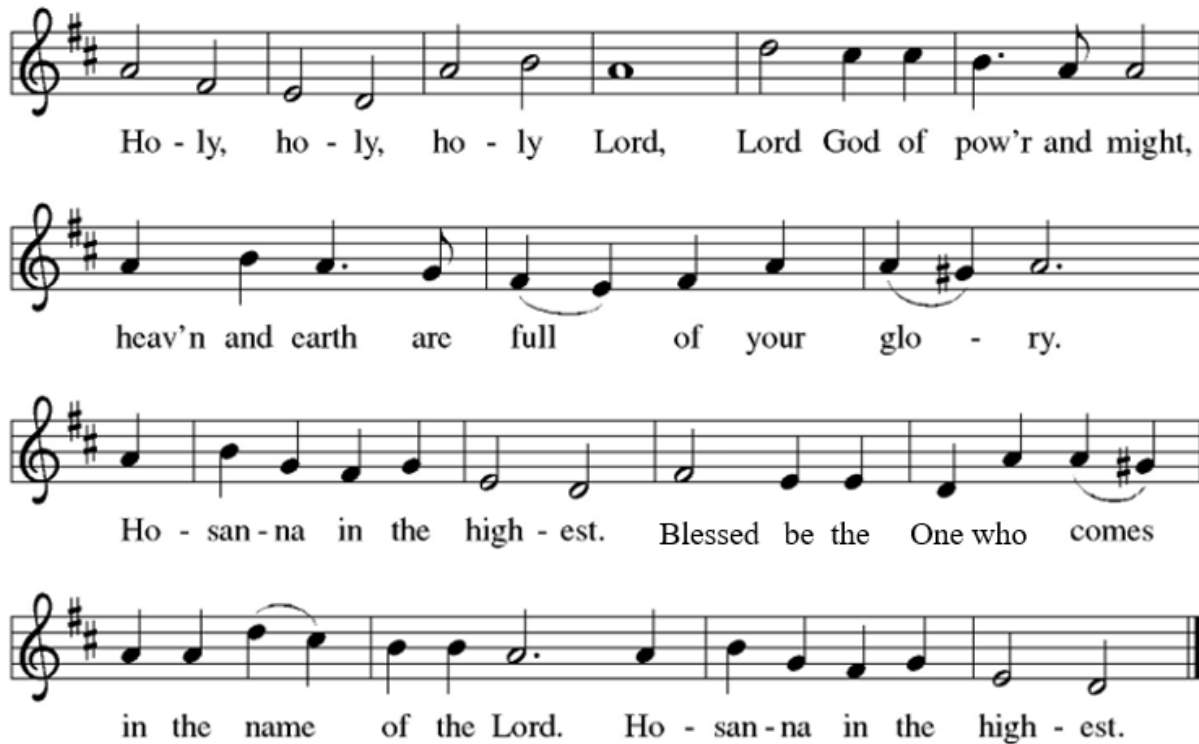

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

PREFACE

... and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, Lord God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blessed be the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

You are indeed holy, almighty and merciful God.
You are most holy,
and great is the majesty of your glory.

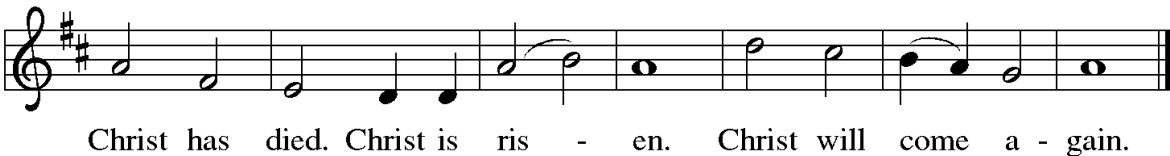

You so loved the world that you gave your only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him may not perish
but have eternal life.

We give you thanks for Jesus' coming into the world to fulfill for us your holy will and to accomplish all things for our salvation.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

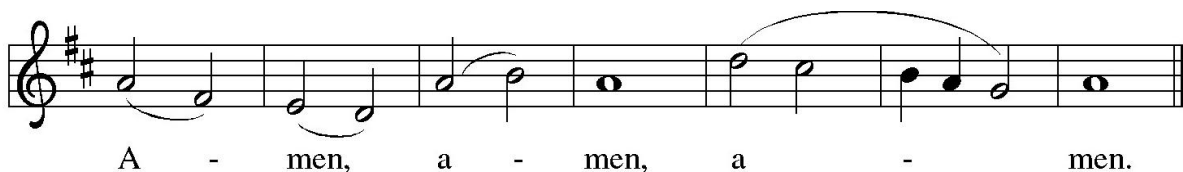

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Remembering, therefore, his salutary command, his life-giving passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension, and the promise of his coming again, we give thanks to you, O Lord God Almighty, not as we ought but as we are able;
we ask you mercifully to accept our praise and thanksgiving and with your Word and Holy Spirit to bless us, your servants, and these your own gifts of bread and wine, so that we and all who share in the body and blood of Christ may be filled with heavenly blessing and grace, and, receiving the forgiveness of sin,
may be formed to live as your holy people
and be given our inheritance with all your saints.

To you, O God, blessed and holy Trinity, be all honour and glory in your holy church, now and forever.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Jesus says, 'I am the bread of life; whoever eats this bread will live forever.'

Lord, our hearts hunger for you; give us this bread always.

Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey of faith,
you are welcome at this table.

Come, receive the gift of new life.

Thanks be to God!

COMMUNION HYMNS:

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

Our heating and cooling system (HVAC) system is feeling it's age...some 40+ years old. This has affected worship on Sundays, the organ, and others who use our space on a daily basis. In addition, our monthly energy bills have taken an upward climb. Despite multiple attempts by the professionals to adjust and patch the system, the time has come to invest in a new system which would provide for greater efficiencies and longevity.

Church Council has approved the replacement of both the main unit and electronics. The total projected cost of this is upwards of $90,000.00.

Despite this projected funding to the HVAC replacement, we are very conscious of the strain on these existing funds in looking to the future. Thus, we are launching a congregational campaign to raise funds for this project. We hope you will join with us in this specific effort.

HVAC Fundraising Tracker

Donations to this project can be given in two ways:

- cash or cheque in an offering envelope marked HVAC Fund in the Other line.
- email transfer to the church through your bank's website/account. The church email is allsaints@allsaintsguelph.ca. Please write HVAC Fund on the memo line.

If you have further questions or require specific help with this, please contact the church office at 519-821-7710 or email allsaints@allsaintsguelph.ca. Alternatively speak to Brian Janzen. Thank you!

International Pronouns Day—Wed. Oct. 15, 2025

This day serves as a reminder to make respecting, sharing, and educating about personal pronouns commonplace. Like calling someone by their name, referring to people by the pronouns they determine for themselves is basic to human dignity. The use of gender-neutral pronouns in English, such as they, Mx and hir, is not a recent invention. Gender-neutral personal pronouns were first introduced to the English language in the early 1900s. In French, the use of the gender-neutral pronoun iel is quite recent. It was introduced in the online edition of the French dictionary Le Petit Robert in 2021. The word iel is a combination of “il” (he) and “elle” (she).

Over the past decade, the importance of gender-neutral terms and respecting personal pronouns have become more widely recognized. As society changes, so do the words that are used by people to describe their gender and sexual orientation. Respecting the pronouns that others go by is important, but everyone is different. Some people may not wish to share their pronouns, go by multiple sets of pronouns or simply want to be referred to by their first name. By sharing your own preferences or personal pronouns, you can let people know how you want to be referred to. Sharing your own preferences can also help create a safe environment for those around you to do so as well.

With the release of the 2021 Census of Population, Canada became the first country to provide census data on transgender and non-binary people. Among the 59,460 transgender people in Canada, there were more transgender women (31,555) than transgender men (27,905).

It's Socktober again!

Last year you helped the Guelph Tool Library and the Helper Bees collect five thousand pairs of socks for distribution to those who are unhoused in our city. These socks lasted until April!

So, the goal this year is to collect 7,500 pairs of socks with the hope that this will be enough for a year's supply. Starting in October there will be a bin upstairs (in the narthex) and one downstairs (we are again asking our community partners who meet in the building to contribute to this campaign) to collect your sock donations. Thank you for your support!
